MAJORITY OF TWO FOR SHIP SUBSIDY

Claimed By Its Advocates in the House

Rear Admiral Sigsbee Reaches Age
Limit and Retires From Active Service.

COMMANDED MAINE AT HAVANA.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—The ship subsidy people have been doing some sensational maneuvering lately and claim as a result a majority of two votes for their bill, which will probably be reported to the house tomorrow or next day.

Sigsbee to Retire.
Washington, Jan. 15.—Admiral Sigsbee closed his active career in the navy today. Tomorrow he reaches the age limit and he will be placed on the retired list. Sigsbee was commander of the ill-fated Maine when the battleship was blown up in Havana harbor.

Subsidy Measure.
Washington, Jan. 15.—It is stated that the committee on merchant marine has stricken out of the subsidy bill the proposed appropriation of $375,000 a year for a steamship line to South Africa, which is unfortunate because of the already great and rapidly growing trade of those countries. The total imports of merchandise into South Africa during the year 1905 were valued at the enormous sum of $294,173,316, of which the share of the United States was only $18,540,603. England, of course, has the greatest interest in this trade, but our exports show a healthy growth and might be increased with profit if there were regular and direct means of communication. A New York shipping house sends a steamer to Cape Town and neighboring ports as often as it can get a cargo. It charters British trampships for the purpose. All other freight goes by way of Liverpool or Southampton, and it is not reasonable to expect that commerce carried on by such means will ever amount to much.

During the war in South Africa our exports ran up as high as $38,436,853, but that was unnatural and represented thousands of horses, mules, cattle and military supplies purchased in this country by the British government. The army quartermasters had permanent corrals in Missouri and Nebraska, where they concentrated the live stock purchased by traveling agents throughout the western states and territories and forwarded several ship loads a month to Cape Town. At the close of the war, in 1905, our exports dropped to $18,500,000, but, during the following year they recovered rapidly until, on the 30th of June, 1906, the total showed a gain of $1,000,000, the exact sum being $19,502,361.

These exports consisted of a variety of articles; almost everything that enters into the wants of men. The table contains 86 different classes of manufactured goods, originating chiefly in the Mississippi Valley, and each item might have been increased considerably if it had not been necessary for the purchasers to pass through England on their way to our market, and to ship the goods via England to their final destination. Germany and England are in active competition in almost every article contained in the list, and it is surprising that the manufacturers of the United States should have sold a dollars' worth, exceeding of course, breadstuffs, provisions and petroleum, which are our special staples and which the other countries do not export.

BACK TO JACKSON.

John Schmucker Will Go to Prove His Innocence.

John Schmucker, alias Joe and Jack Shoemaker, was held this morning for the authorities of Jackson, Tenn., on two counts for forgery. Here he was arrested on the charge of being a fugitive from justice. The young man is married to a young woman of more than ordinary beauty. She believes he is innocent of the charges, and the defendant declares he is the wrong man. In order to prove he is not guilty he is willing to return, and will leave today with O. B. Warlick for Jackson. He will follow him.

OUT OF RIVER MIST MAN'S FORM APPEARS

FALLS FROM WAGON.

Sustains Severe Injuries to Knee and Ankle.

John M. Dunaway, of the Jake Biederman Grocery and Bakery company's store, fell from the wagon last evening and his ankle and knee were severely injured. He is confined at his home, 418 South Ninth street.

Thaw Again Well.

New York, Jan. 15.—Harry K. Thaw, who is awaiting trial for the murder of Stanford White, seems to have recovered from the indisposition which was reported yesterday. The prison physician visited Thaw today and found him so recovered from an attack of tonsillitis that he decided the patient did not need any further treatment.

FRUIT DEALERS ASK PROTECTION

Say Peddlers Are Interfering
With Their Sale of Bananas
In The Downtown Business
District

WILL INTRODUCE ORDINANCE.

Retail fruit dealers on Broadway, Jefferson street and Kentucky avenue, will ask the general council for protection from the numerous peddlers who patrol the streets with inferior wares at inferior prices, which affect their business. The dealers will present an ordinance to keep the peddlers off the business streets, and will be represented by a well known attorney. It is understood, to plead their case.

Fruit dealers have to pay a license tax of $25. On Broadway, Jefferson street and Kentucky avenue hucksters and peddlers are frequently seen with their wares. They do not pay the license that retail fruit dealers pay, yet they damage their business, so the fruit dealers claim.

One fruit dealer stated this morning: "We will ask that a district taking in Kentucky avenue, Broadway and Jefferson street, from First street to Sixth street, be created and that the peddlers be prohibited from selling."

MISSING MAN'S BODY IN RIVER

Corpse of Young Philadelphia Clubman Who Disappeared Found.

Philadelphia, Jan. 15.—The body of Frank X. DeLone, the young clubman, who disappeared while horseback riding in Fairmount Park, was found today in the Schuylkill river below the city avenue bridge.

The clue which led the police to drag the river for DeLone's body was furnished by James Harrop, who last night told of having seen a horseman struggling with his mount on the bridge. The horse was bucking and trying to throw his rider.

Harrop heard a splash in the river, but thought it was only a stone, dislodged by the horse's hoofs, falling from the bridge. That was last Wednesday night, when DeLone disappeared. His horse was found browsing near the bridge.

City avenue bridge is a wooden structure, its guard rails are of iron and are about four feet high. It spans the Schuylkill at a height of 100 feet or more.

Unknown Hangman.

Winnipeg, Jan. 15.—Asking forgiveness but absolutely refusing to confess his guilt, Salvatore Mori was hanged today for the murder of John Romalle. Mori, a volunteer, refusing to reveal his identity and wearing a mask, pulled the trap.

May Wed a Count.

Chattanooga, Jan. 15.—It is announced that Mildred, the daughter of Dwight Montague, millionaire manufacturer of Chattanooga, is to wed Count Pascolina of Italy. The young woman and her mother are now in Italy.

The marriage of Loquacity to Preoccupation is daily happy. She is never interested and he never hears.

PROF. OLDRIEVE PASSES PADUCAH

Skating on Surface of Ohio in Presence of Thousands of People

DOES NOT STOP HERE AT ALL.

Says He Is Hurrying to Reach Mississippi River Tonight and Get Early Start.

GO OUT IN SKIFFS TO SEE HIM.

Emerging from the mist that hid the lengths of the Ohio river beside Owen's island, Prof. Charles Oldrieve appeared almost unannounced, swinging along on top of the water, to the thousands of Paducahans who lined the river front and watched down the steamers tied to the wharfbank at the foot of Broadway.

The walker did not stop at Paducah but kept well in the middle of the Ohio river, trying, as he curtly informed those who went to meet him in a skiff, to make the Mississippi tonight. At the rate he is going, unless he becomes exhausted, he will well high accomplish his design. This will put him into the Father of Waters almost on schedule time.

Prof. Oldrieve started from Cincinnati a week ago Friday and must make New Orleans, walking every step of the way on water, in forty days. He rests in a launch in which his wife and daughter ride, at night, and walks all day. The launch follows him down the river.

The professor is trying to win a wager of $5,000 and a side bet of as much more.

He spent the night at Smithland, got a good start and passed Paducah at 8:30 o'clock this morning. Whistles blew, announcing his coming. Several barbershops and stores closed at the signal, and from every side street hundreds of children, playing hokey from school, appeared on the river front.

Two skiffs put out to meet the professor, who showed no intention of stopping. He was heartily cheered from the shore and fired off dynamite crackers to let them know he was listening.

Prof. Oldrieve's "seven league" boots consist of cedar skis, rubber enclosed, 3 feet long and 6 inches wide. They fasten up to his waist.

On these he skates along on top of the water. Once, while opposite the wharfbank, he raised his foot to do a fancy movement and nearly tumbled into the water, losing his balance. He glided right through the wake of the Bettie Owen with apparently no difficulty.

He says he had to learn how to skate on the water.

Oldrieve passed Metropolis at 11:45 and was making good speed.

MEN BATTLE WITH SNAKES.

Nearly Three Hundred Reptiles in a Stone Quarry.

Petersburg, Ind., Jan. 15.—Six men battled with an immense nest of copperhead snakes in a quarry near here today. After fighting for almost an hour the men were forced to leave more than one hundred dead reptiles and twice as many live ones. The men refuse to return to work in the quarry.

Political Confusion.

Berlin, Jan. 15.—With the election of the new reichstag ten days away, an indescribable condition marks the political situation. While only 397 members will be chosen out of over 1,300, officials to be nominated represent eighteen different groups.

There is only one kind of a newspaper circulation statement that is worth any consideration and that is the daily detailed statement. The Sun is the only Paducah paper printing such a statement.

IN GRETNA GREEN.
Squire Thomas Liggett, at Metropolis, married George W. Marlow and Berner B. St. John, of Gracey, Ky., and Mr. Lacy C. McCandless, of Bayon, Ky., and Miss Jennie A. Tonnle, of Birds-ville yesterday.

COWLING WINS.

The Cowling and the Wheeling had a race to Metropolis this morning, and the Cowling won out. A great crowd of Metropolis people were at wharf to see the race and cheered the Cowling lustily.

ECLIPSE WITNESSED.

London, Jan. 15.—A total eclipse of the sun which occurred Monday in central Asia, was satisfactorily observed. The period of total eclipse was two minutes, but the sun was partially obscured for an hour.

GLASS FACTORY DONATIONS.

Lack of space, in an effort to accommodate our advertisers today necessitated The Sun withholding the publication of the list of donors to the glass factory until tomorrow. Over a page of advertisements, too, were turned down, which is but satisfying evidence of the appreciation of The Sun as an advertising medium.

SINKING RAPIDLY; CANNOT RECOVER

Mr. John Murray May Pass
Away At Any Moment

Dissolution Began to Set In at Midnight and All Hope Was Abandoned.

A PROMINENT BUSINESS MAN

Sinking rapidly and unconsciously, John Murray, of the firm of Murray & Chamblin, brick manufacturers, who has been confined several weeks at his home, 1250 South Seventh street, cannot survive the night, and his death is expected at almost any moment. Mr. Murray began sinking at midnight last night, although no hope of his recovery has been entertained for some time.

Mr. Murray is 62 years old and a native of Scotland. He and his brother, who now lives in Florida, came to this country and Mr. John Murray went to Missouri. He came to Paducah in 1890 and began the manufacture of bricks. He is one of the best known business men in the city and has a host of friends, although naturally of a quiet disposition.

His wife and four children are at his bedside.

KINGSTON RUINED BY EARTHQUAKE

New York, Jan. 15.—Kingston, Jamaica, was destroyed by an earthquake with great loss of life. According to a report this afternoon.

CHAPTER THANKS HON. OLLIE JAMES

In a message received last evening by Mrs. Charles K. Wheeler from Hon. Ollie James, she is informed that the bill permitting the Daughters of the American Revolution to erect a fountain in the custom house yard, which was introduced by Mr. James, has passed the house. Paducah chapter immediately adopted resolutions thanking Mr. James for his "courtesy and promptness and efficiency" in getting the measure through. It has been pending only a short time. The bill now goes to the senate.

Paris Is Inundated.

Paris, Ky., Jan. 15.—Steady rain for many days has put streams out of banks and they are doing great damage. Two hundred feet of the Paris and Lexington electric line is washed out near Paris. The power house is flooded. Louisville and Nashville trains are ordered to proceed cautiously.

IT IS UP TO MAYOR TO BREAK DEADLOCK

POLICE PAYROLL AWAITS ACTION

Aldermen Remain in Session
For Over Twelve Hours
Without Result

BREAKFAST PROVES TOO MUCH.

Alderman Palmer Broke Democratic Will With Scent of Violets and Aroma of Cigars.

QUESTION IS GETTING SERIOUS.

After an all night session, during which the contending party grimly fought a waiting battle, human nature asserted itself, and the board of aldermen adjourned this morning without electing a president, because Democratic stomachs could not stand the sight and smell of breakfast delicacies and coffee spread before them to gratify Republican appetites, and when the aroma of fine Havanas greeted their nostrils as the smoke curled up and formed a halo over the east side of the council chamber where Republican feet rested on aldermanic desks and Republican bodies lolled back comfortably in aldermanic seats, the Democrats capitulated and an emissary went over to the Republican side and proposed adjournment. The Republicans were just as anxious to adjourn as their colleagues and they agreed to the motion and the Democrats seconded it.

Alderman Earl Palmer earned another victory. The breakfast was his idea. He was hungry and he knew the others were, after sitting in the chamber from 7 o'clock in the evening until 7 o'clock in the morning. Without hinting his intention he ordered an elegant meal for the four Republican aldermen, with cigars to end the banquet. Then he sat down to await the psychological moment. None of them had tasted a bite since early supper save for six sandwiches, which Dr. Bass brought in and which were divided around.

The coup worked as planned. Mayor Yelzer, who had evidently given the Democratic aldermen orders before he left last night to hold the fort until he came, arrived about 8 o'clock. About the same hour the four breakfasts, steaming on a large tray, arrived.

It was no use, all the talk about allowing the police payroll, granting saloon licenses, and fixing the tax rate, went for naught. The four aldermen, who had heeded the mayor's orders with the obedience, if not with the patience, of soldiers all the long night through capitulated to their stomachs, and the board adjourned.

Unless Mayor Yelzer calls a special session the board will not meet until one week from Thursday. That will make it January 24, allowing six working days in which to appoint committees fix the tax rate, grant saloon licenses and allow all the pay rolls and claims.

It looks from this point of view as if the Republicans will organize the board of aldermen.

Would Not Give In.

"We will not give in," said one of the members when they adjourned this morning. "When the board met the first night there were indications of a spirit of conciliation on both sides, but when Mayor Yelzer took a hand and persuaded Alderman-elect Little to resign and appointed his successor before the board was organized, we saw that the purpose was to run over us from the start. It unified us and we are going to fight for recognition. Anyway, we are too

WEATHER.—Rain, probably threatening to snow tonight and decidedly colder. Wednesday probably fair with cold wave. Highest temperature yesterday 74. Lowest today 30.

SCHOOL'S GROWTH IS DEMONSTRATED

Seventh Teacher Will Be Elected to High School

From 150 Pupils, Sentenced in Different Rooms, Enrollment
Reaches 210.

STANDING OF SCHOOL HIGH

Demands for a new teacher in the High school which the school board will meet tonight, reflect the advancement of the institution during the last two years, under the direction of Superintendent Lieb and Prof. George E. Payne, the principal.

The new teacher will make the seventh employed in the High school, where four formerly taught all the students. At that time each teacher had a number of widely varying subjects whereas now each teacher is a specialist, and is chosen to teach his or her specialty.

The specializing of the work and the improvements gradually insisted on have raised the standard of the school, so that the four years' course, substituted for the old three years' course, is actually a full year ahead of the former High school. The seventh grade is now the equal of the old eighth grade. Where formerly the school was not recognized outside the state and not by some institutions in the state, a certificate from the superintendent that the scholar has passed in any particular study will be accepted by any college or university in the country.

From an enrollment of 150 the school has grown to 210 and the new High school auditorium, in which all the students gather, gives the institution a homogeneity it lacked when the classes occupied separate rooms like the grade schools. With this has been cultivated a school spirit, that has had a tendency, not only to increase the numbers annually entering from the grades, but has kept up the attendance and interest of the pupils. Athletics, literary societies and lectures have served to stimulate the pride of the students in their school and its work.

EVANSVILLE IN FOR IT.

Stage of Forty-Two Feet and Much Damage Promised.

Evansville, Ind., Jan. 15.—The changed conditions of the last 24 hours indicate a serious flood here. The observer says the river will reach at least 42 feet, which will mean great damage and loss of thousands of dollars' worth of property.

KILLS AND SAYS HE DID ONE GOOD DEED—INSANE.

Geneva, O., Jan. 15.—George Moro land cut the throats of his two small sons during a temporary fit of insanity this morning. The children died almost instantly in their beds. He walked downstairs with the bloody razor and said to his wife: "Well, I've done one good deed this morning."

FITZSIMMONS - BURNS MATCHED FOR A FIGHT

COWARD DIES AND BEGS FOR CARE OF HIS MOTHER

Chicago, Jan. 15.—Lawrence Everett, 18 years old, disappointed in love, took poison today and while dying wrote to a wealthy employer, asking him to care for his mother, a widow out of employment.

School Board May Elect Teachers at Meeting in March, It is Said

While no information has been given out, it is strongly intimated that the school board will elect teachers for next year at the March session when a successor to Superintendent Lieb is selected. Heretofore it has been customary to wait until summer to select the teachers for the next year. What the purpose of the board is in making the early selection, or whether the board really has decided on such a course, is not definitely known. It is stated on good authority that there will be a number of resignations and changes in the teaching force.

STILL HEARING EVIDENCE.

Railroad Officials Go to Greenville to Hear.

Today the meeting of the Illinois Central officials, the state board of railroad commissioners and William Eades, owner of Illinois mines near Greenville, is on, and evidence in the charges of discrimination are being heard by the commission. Eades claims the road furnished other coal companies cars in preference to him, and alleges that his business has been hurt. Mr. H. F. North, chief dispatcher of the Louisville district, and other officials, including Supt. A. H. Egan, are at Greenville, where the meeting is being held. It may take several days to conclude the evidence.

REDUCING PLANT FOR CITY REFUSE

To be Urged by Health Board on Council

Present Crude Method Inadequate and Dangerous to Health and Comfort.

GARBAGE UNDER L. C. INCLINE

If the board of health can persuade the general council to the views of its members, Paducah will have a reducing plant for the consumption of the city garbage. The board has always favored this plan above the crude one of dumping the refuse into the Ohio river, but since complications are feared on account of the present method of disposal, the board is all the more urgent for improvement.

At the meeting of the board last night Mr. James P. Sleeth stated that on account of the high water at the city dump, Ghent & Elliott, the contractors, are unable to get barrels of refuse out to the front and they are dumping them on the flat below the Illinois Central Incline, where the dead water will recede and leave a third of it rotting and smelling next summer. Trouble with the railroad is feared. Under the contract, Ghent must carry the refuse out to the channel and 75 feet is specified, but just now it is an absolute impossibility.

Dr. H. P. Sights said the city greatly needs a reducing plant, which he believes can be purchased cheaply and which will practically pay operating expenses by the sale of by-products. He said the present method is wholly inadequate and the enormous amount of garbage carried out of the city annually justifies some expense in preventing an unhealthful condition arising from its presence.

Theatrical Notes

Walker Whiteside Tonight.

The engagement of Walker Whiteside in the Magic Melody has always been an event of importance in the theatrical season. The many admirers of really fine acting in the city have welcomed him in a way which must have been a source of gratification to him. However, much added importance attaches to Mr. Whiteside's engagement at the Kentucky tonight, for the reason that he will be seen for the first time in this city in a strictly modern play. Many advance comments on the success of Mr. Whiteside's latest venture have appeared in these columns since the opening of the season and indeed the reports bearing upon his new play "The Magic Melody."

Following is the story of the play: Helmar is a young German violinist who has found a home in New York with Mrs. Zellner, a whole-souled German woman, who was once a famous pianist in the old country. Helmar has been making a living by playing at cast side dances in New York and now and then appearing as a soloist. Cloris Fielding, a ward of Jordan Rawker another Rockefeller, comes to the home of Mrs. Zellner for piano lessons and find herself in love with Helmar. Pietro Gianti, once a famous singer in Italy, but now a drunkard earning a living by selling bric-a-brac on the streets, comes to the home of Mrs. Zellner now and then when he isn't drunk and they talk over the artists they have known.

Helmar's mother was a famous singer in Germany and was deserted by Rawker, who left her to die. Helmar, it turns out, is the son of Rawker and he faces the millionaire with the statement in his own house as a magnificent concert is being arranged. Rawker discovers Helmar's feeling toward his ward and becoming incensed orders Cloris to write a note ending her affair with the violinist. Goaded by the fact that he cannot turn his ward's feelings to the point of accepting Lord Kildare, an English lord with a big title and a small purse Rawker threatens to have Helmar's name cut from the list of artists who are to appear and she agrees to see him no more. It is finally arranged that Helmar shall appear and he makes the success of his life.

Gianti, the once famous singer, was a lover of the actress whom Rawker left to die, and when he discovers the fact that he has been a servant of Rawker's he rashly wants to commit murder on the spot. Helmar restrains him only one day, for as the concert is at its height, Gianti attempts to stab him, but is stopped and escapes without anyone knowing who the would-be murderer was. He reaches Mrs. Zell-ner's line and prepares for flight to Italy.

Rawker comes in and finds Helmar. He is willing to settle upon the young violinist anything he has, but Helmar spurns wealth and throws the proofs of his birthright to the millions into the fire. Cloris, who has written him a note at Rawker's dictation, bidding him farewell, steals in the room and tears the paper up as Rawker leaves the house.

Concerning Mr. Whiteside the Louisville Times says:

Mr. Whiteside acts the role of the struggling and ambitious young musician with effective naturalness, and rising to dramatic power as occasion requires.

The play is well constructed, keeps nicely to the main story and abounds in character parts, all of which are splendidly taken by the excellent company supporting Mr. Whiteside.

In the part of Jordan Rawker the playwright has pictured the Wall-street man of finance in a way to satisfy the extremest of the opponents of wealth and rabid of corporation batters. And the portrayal of the role by Herbert Sears was drawn with exceptionally fine effect. Pietro Gianti, the once famous Italian singer, who had lost his voice and was on the bounty of the man who had robbed him of his love (Rawker), was another piece of character work that was excellently done in the hands of Richard Sherman.

Miss Martha George made of Mrs. Zellner, a dear motherly figure of the German type. Miss Lilia Wolstan took the role of Cloris Fielding with effective sweetness, and Miss Maude Shaw was good as Clara Douglas, W. H. Carter enacted the role of Lord Kildare, visiting the United States under the family name of Sylvester Hargrave, in capital fashion, presenting the part without the absurd stupidity of the usual Englishman of the stage, but with just enough of it to make it an effective characterization.

The Missouri Girl.

"The Missouri Girl" which comes to the Kentucky Friday night, is a bright, ruddy comedy that pictures life in the Ozark country in every detail. It has a strong moral. The comedy is clean, being the kind of fun that you are not ashamed to have your mother, wife, sister or sweetheart see.

Tim Murphy's Return.

Mr. Tim Murphy is said to have made a corner on success with "A Corner in Coffee." This comedian has been in Texas, in Missouri, in trouble, in fun, in congress and in several other places and it was inevitable that he would get into Wall street. Now he has arrived, via the coffee wagon, and find the tangle of success attendant so agreeable, he is probably wondering why it never before occurred to him to take a plunge into the real national game in "the crooked little street, with a grave yard at one end and the river at the other." From all accounts of his delightful success the same question will be asked by his admiring audience when he appears at the Kentucky theater on Saturday night only, in "A Corner in Coffee." The events of interest in this comedy extended seemingly in every direction. The story was written by one of our most celebrated authors, Cyrus Townsend hio affair called "a corner," and it shows the details of its conception, birth, growth, and smash. That there is considerable fun even in a battle for millions and that a coffee king has his own sense of humor is said to have been delightfully demonstrated by Mr. Murphy in "A Corner in Coffee." A large company and a massive production are employed in the performance of "A Corner in Coffee."

You will be delighted crispy mornings if you have Mrs. Austin's Pancakes for breakfast.

SUGAR TRUST

RESPONSIBLE FOR FAILURE OF TRUST COMPANY.

Damage Suit of $20,000,000 Will Be Brought Against Havemeyer and Associates.

New York, Jan. 15.--The World this morning prints a story concerning recent developments in the failure of the Real Estate Trust company, of Philadelphia and the connection of the American Sugar Refining company, thereof. The article, among other things, says: "The company and its principal cers will be called upon to defend actions for damages aggregating $20,000,000 and to answer in the federal courts the direct charge that they brought about the financial ruin of a competitor, wrecked the Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia last summer and drove its president, Frank K. Hipple, to suicide.

"H. O. Havemeyer, president, and John E. Parsons, general counsel for the American Sugar Refining company, are among the officers named in the legal papers."

Well Known Here.

The Nashville Christian Advocate says:

"Rev. W. E. Sewell, now at Clanton, Cuba, reports himself and family in good health. He preaches six times a week, and attends ten services in all. He has four preaching places and a thriving Sunday school in each. In the whole of the Santa Clara work, where he spent six years and five months, he received into the church six hundred and forty members and baptized about 50 children. During that time three excellent church properties were secured worth about $13,000. Our missionaries in Cuba are successful in their efforts to evangelize that island."

The Rev. W. E. Sewell was formerly pastor of the Trimble Street Methodist church of this city, and has many friends here who are interested in his work in Cuba.

All leading hotels, restaurants and dining cars serve Mr. Austin's Pancakes for breakfast. Much the best.

DR. BROTHERS ELECTED.

Will Succeed Himself As Head of Health Board.

At the board of health meeting last night Dr. C. H. Brothers was unanimously elected president for another year. Those present were Dr. Brothers, Dr. H. P. Sigant, Messrs. James P. Sleeth and C. F. Yates, the latter having been recently elected to the board. Dr. W. T. Graves, city health officer, was present. The absentees were Dr. J. G. Brooks and Mr. F. M. McGee.

Quarterly Conference.

The Rev. F. L. Creech of Louisville, presiding elder of the Louisville district M. E. Church, filled his regular quarterly appointment Sunday at the Mechanicsburg Methodist church. He preached morning and night, delivering strong sermons.

The subject at night was "The Work of the Holy Spirit." The regular quarterly conference was held Saturday and an excellent report made by the pastor the Rev. J. H. Perryman. All claims were met.

Bodging the Grip.

The cure of grip may well be left to the doctors. The important thing for the ordinary man is not to get it. The preservation of health through sleep and homely methods can do more at this season to cheat the churchyard than the doctors can do after once a man has fallen victim to influenza. If you have a bronchial cold or a feverish temperature, the best thing to do is to stay in and consult your physician. Those symptoms, aggravated by drenched feet, by standing on the platform of a crowded street car, lead straight el-ther to pneumonia or intestinal influenza. The transformation is quite as likely to be helped as hindered by a free indulgence in the favorite, quinine and hot whisky. For the man who is sick the physician with a diploma is the only proper doctor. But the man who is well should take such precautions as will insure him remaining so. He should protect his feet against dampness, and should not wear clothing so heavy as to induce perspiration when he is out of doors.--Brooklyn Eagle.

Vermont Quarries.

Out of the massive marble hills of Vermont has been wrought, by labor and skill, a part of the nation's wealth. Some years ago it was a common statement that as much money had been lost in the marble business as had been made in it, but this is no longer the case; for, ei-though the testing and developing of a quarry is a heavy expense, the business is now on a stable basis. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been sunk in efforts to obtain a marble quarry, and the chief expense is still labor. A quarry differs from a gold mine in that, however the product may be it merely offers an opportunity to produce stone on a paying basis, and on a relatively small margin of profit. In some quarries a royalty of five cents per cubic foot is paid to the owner of the land for the merchantable marble that is taken away.--From "Nature's Marble Halls in Vermont," by Mitchell, in National Magazine for January.

Considering what a man saves on drinks and cigars being sick abed, he isn't out much on the doctor's bills.

Daily Thought.

"There is no service of the real without recognition of the ideal."

FIAT AND SENTIMENT.

Now we shall see how far the fiat of a court goes in suppressing crime without the enthusiastic co-operation of the police, which means the community. The citation of Daisy Allen to appear before Judge Reed and show cause why she should not be punished for contempt of court in conducting a disorderly house on Kentucky avenue in defiance of his order, affords the first opportunity we have had to ascertain what the court can do peremptorily.

At the time the order was entered in circuit court we expressed apprehension lest the court might find itself unable to prove contempt, even if the neighbors were morally certain the court's order was being violated in letter and spirit. The guilt or innocence of Daisy Allen in this particular instance is of little moment compared to the larger question involved. A neighbor of the woman makes affidavit that she is conducting a bawdy house. He may be able to prove the fact of suspicious looking men and women coming and going about the place, but visible facts, creating a moral certainty when studied in their natural environment, often fail to convince beyond doubt when translated into cold language.

We may happily be mistaken, and it may be that the vigilance of the neighbors and the prompt action of Judge Reed will operate as a deterrent on those women inclined to slip back to their old haunts when "things blow over." But such women are essentially creatures of the police. That is not saying that they ply their trade with the connivance of the police; but they certainly exist by sufferance. It is ridiculous to say that they cannot be driven from a city and prevented from pursuing their wicked practices. It would be as well to say that thieves and gamblers, or any other sort of criminals, cannot be suppressed. It requires constant vigilance to keep them out, but then, it requires vigilance to keep out the other lawbreakers.

And, now, a word for the police. That the "red light" exists in any city is not so much the fault of the police as it is of the citizenship generally. The police, like other citizens, have been accustomed to look upon the "red light" as a "necessary evil." A policeman, so conscientious that he would club the senses out of a criminal who should even suggest a deviation from the strict line of his duty, would pass by a disorderly house on his beat 20 times a day without making a report or an arrest unless ordered to do so, for exactly the same reason that the average citizen would pass it by unless it annoyed him. We are too prone to say a policeman ought to "pull that nose." Instead of taking steps on our own accord to have it closed, we rather admire the conduct of the Rev. D. C. Wright, who did not waste aid.

ling in complaining but proceeded according to his own means.

The Paducah police will start a crusade against the "red light" whenever a positive, vigorous public sentiment demands it, and the truth is, that public sentiment in Paducah has not been stirred as yet into an active force. Of course, there is none who will say a word in favor of the red light, but there are few who would trouble themselves about it. Kentucky avenue was evacuated, because residents of the contiguous territory demanded it. In other neighborhoods "frontier committees" were organized to prevent the evil houses from locating there, but in each instance the movement was purely local and essentially selfish in design. There are good men in every section willing and eager to fight for the suppression of vice, but they are in the minority.

There are still disorderly houses in Paducah and the fault lies in her citizens, who have and do permit such a condition to exist, except when it encroaches on their individual rights.

The board of public works in creating a deficit of $7,776.71, was taking chances with that portion of section 3069 of the charter which says: "Any officer of the city who shall knowingly do any act to impose upon the city any pecuniary liability in excess of the authority in this act limited (expend any money in excess of the amount annually levied, collected or appropriated for any special object), shall be guilty of a misdemeanor." Yet it has been customary and until some flagrant violation of the law for questionable purposes calls a halt, we shall scarcely complain.

No, Prof. Oldrieve is not a newspaper editor, whose pass was taken away.

Figures can not lie, but they can be lied about.

MAGNIFICENT CHARGE.

In a magnificent charge to the grand jury at Valdosta, Ga., Judge Emory Speer of the United States District Court, gave wholesale advice and powerful admonition.

"That man and those men, who practice a ceaseless crusade of reckless antagonism, disregard for constitutional law, and propagation of race wars, are the deadliest enemies of the Southern people. They degrade our homes, our values and our principles, and our humanity the world around. They smother and belittle the abounding blessings, the unintermittent prosperity, which is at the door of these people. Birds of ill-omen, like the Harpies did the banquet in Virgil, they are befouling their own homes and the homes of their people and giving to mankind the world around that the plague spot of civilization, when no other land is so admirably fitted by its climate, its fertility or its people to be the home of unnumbered millions of happy and prosperous freemen."

Judge Speer then descended to particulars:

"That we have at times crimes committed upon our helpless ones, which are more abominable and execrable than language may portray, is true. On this subject all Southern white men—and, indeed, all decent white men, and I believe all decent black men—everywhere are of the same mind. But let us have of the same mind. But let us have a care, lest by continuous and intense agitation we incur the danger of fixing in the minds of the few savage and degraded that this is the most effective blow that they can strike at the white who are hateful to them, and thus multiply instances of the very crime which stirs a fever in the blood of age, and makes the infant shiver strong as steel."

The conclusion drawn by Judge Speer is well worth heeding:

"Your bitter enemy is disposed to do you the very injury which most you fear. Let the people of the South, deliberately and calmly, and by whatever expenditure may be necessary, make sure of the detection and arrest and lawful conviction of these criminals. Let them stamp out the blind tigers and the illicit distilleries, whose maddening product transforms a bestial but innocuous nature into an animal as deadly as may be found in those African jungles from which he sprang."

The Herald has for several years paid close attention to Judge Speer's splendid pronouncements issued for the upliftment alike of white and black. He is doing marvels for the enlightenment of this section. Enlightenment will bring security, and security insure continued prosperity. Every Judge, speaking as does Emory Speer would work a speedy revolution in the South.—Louisville Herald.

POOL CARS

IN ORDER TO AVOID CONSEQUENCES OF SHORTAGE.

Arrangements Made By Several of Great Railroad Lines to Work Together.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—With a view to relieving the car shortage and preventing a recurrence of the present trouble, the railroads having nearly 500,000 freight cars have decided to form a car pool. Before the movement is completed it is said every large system in the country will join.

The general scheme was adopted by the railroads in deference to the report of Commerce Commissioner Lane, which stated that much might be accomplished by pooling freight cars.

Arthur Hale, general superintendent of transportation for the Baltimore and Ohio, has been selected to organize and manage the pool. In general, freight cars of all roads which are members of the pool will be regarded as "at home" when they are on lines of any road which is a member of the pool. Under the new pool it will be in the power of Hale to supply deficiencies from the cars of any railroad which is a member of the pool.

21 Men on Ship Rescue Pet, But Stay on Vessel and Are Drowned.

Cuxhaven, Germany, Jan. 15.—The British ship Pengwern, Captain Williams, from Talait, Chile, Oct. 6, for Falmouth with a cargo of salt petre, grounded off Scharpor, about ten miles northwest of Cuxhaven today. Twenty-four men comprising the crew, were drowned and her cargo is a total loss. The tug Vulkan went to the assistance of the stranded vessel and passing closely to her the crew of the Pengwern threw a live dog aboard the tug, but disregarded the appeals to jump into the water so that they might be rescued. A heavy sea broke over the Pengwern and she disappeared from view.

An Apt Suggestion

In the Times Magazine for January Charles Klein, author of "The Music Master," "The Lion and the Mouse," and "The Daughters of Men," the most successful American plays produced during the past three seasons advances an interesting suggestion. As it is a matter of the greatest importance that there should be a high moral standing governing theatrical representations, Mr. Klein thinks that boards of physicians and metaphysicians, not aldermen or political censors, should be formed to exercise control of the playhouses.

"People," says Mr. Klein, "go to see plays in a receptive mood, with minds easily absorbent. They receive in their sub-conscious selves certain mental pictures, which may have a very marked influence on the subsequent development of character. Impressions thus receive sub-consciously the individual is very apt to mistake for his own original thought. In consequence, there is an equal likelihood that we will be dominated by them. An audience is in an auto-hypnotic state, and the psychological aspect of the influence of presented pictures of characters is of the utmost importance."

At a time when "Comstockery" as a moral censor is a question more or less in issue, Mr. Klein's suggestion will cause considerable discussion.

AMERICA RICHEST NATION IN WORLD.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says: "The United States is the wealthiest nation in the world," said a close friend of President Roosevelt yesterday, who had just gone over a remarkable official report, which is soon to be made public. He added:

"Our country has more actual money, more gold, a larger volume of exports, greater banking facilities, richer farms, more productive mines, more railroads, more internal commerce, more millionaires, more well-to-do tradesmen more independent farmers, more highly paid laborers, and a greater distribution of luxuries than any other nation has enjoyed since time began."

To say that the total valuation of the wealth of the United States is $107,000,000,000 is not understandable, as a hundred billion dollars is such a pile of money that the mind simply cannot grasp its meaning on the instant.

Probably the best way of illustrating the actual extent of Uncle Sam's riches is to state if he could convert all the assets into money, he would have nearly four times as much as is required to pay off the entire national debt of all the governments in the world, including his own. Last year there was more than $27,000,000 in excess of the expenditures.

Jungle-Hunting in Panama.

As there are as yet practically no roads in the interior of Panama and trails are nearly always tributary to the nearest river, travel is almost entirely done by canoes. The native cayuco or pirogus of the interior is usually made of native cedar, narrow flat bottomed and ending in a flat platform-like bow and stern. This peculiar construction is to enable one to land directly over the bow or stern when, due to the nature of the bank, it is impossible to more than force the bow to solid ground.

A trip up the river needs little preparations as compared with a camping trip in a cold climate. A good guide with his big working knife or machete can do wonders. With this he can cut trail, clean the camp site, make a shelter or house, a bedstead, a mattress of thatch and a cover for the fire—all fastened together with vine ropes which he cuts near by. He can cut firewood and dress game slice bacon or potatoes, chop out an impromptu paddle or palanca, "cut rubber," dig roots, get out fair sized logs and, if necessary, inflict serious wounds with it.

As your canoe slips quietly along the bank of some good river, the charm is derived both from the feeling of expectation regarding new sights and chances at odd sorts of game. You round a bend, your canoe, or paddler, stops and, as you slowly bring into view the stretch or vuelta beyond, probably he says, "Lagarto, senior all! all!" and when your unaccustomed eyes finally follow his direction, you see a big 'gator, light gray on the back from dried mud and yellow below, lying like a log on the farther mud bank. He sees you, you may be sure of that; in fact he usually sees everything that moves, and hears and smells as well as he sees; he is in no hurry to slide into water, however, for he sees native canoes every day and they never bother him.—Dr. Holton C. Curl in December "Recreation."

Girls, Be Neat.

Neatness is one of the most attractive of feminine qualities. It is also one of the rarest.

Early and persistent must be the training which carries the girl into womanhood with her "bump of neatness" well developed. Unless inherently fastidious during schooldays she is liable to drift into careless habits which she never outgrows. One girl may have a trick of leaving shoes about her room. As a mere toy she was permitted to do this, and as she grew older the untidy custom was never abandoned, for the simple reason that she herself did not notice anything unusual about it, and probably nobody else took the trouble to correct her. Another slovenly habit is leaving a bunch of combings in her comb, or on her dressing table, says Woman's Life. Constant vigilance on a woman's part is necessary in these small traits, unless she would be judged unworthy her birthright.—daintiness.

Try For Suburbanities.

Suburban neighborhoods infested by burglars might wisely take a hint from E. J. Rath's amusing little burglar story in The American Magazine for December.

"Our newly patented burglar alarm has been working ever since I woke up and saw you," said the head of the house.

"No funny business, now," said the burglar sharply. What burglar alarm?"

"It's a new kind that I helped to invent," said Mr. Wilson, a note of pride in his voice. "This burglar alarm doesn't ring in your own house at all. It rings in the other fellow's houses. See this little switch here?" Mr. Wilson lifted the covers and disclosed a small contrivance fastened to the framework of the bed. "Well, when I first saw you I turned that switch and it started to ring going in twenty different houses around here. When my friends woke up and looked at their indicators they saw that Number 9 had dropped. That's my number. Then they got their revolvers and shotguns and dogs and came around to call. At least I hope so. You might look and see."

"The burglar sprang to a window and looked out into the moonlight. The alarm had worked."

Every soul either serves or shirks. 'Tis a sad world to him who looks at it with sour eyes.

Pure Blood Is Essential to Good Health.

Dr. A. T. Allen, the discoverer of Osteopathy, stated many years ago, that perfect circulation of blood, insuring the proper food elements for tissue nourishment was absolutely essential for the maintenance of health, and all researches along bacteriological lines have proven without doubt the fact.

Perfect circulation is dependent on normal structure. As long as the different parts of the human organism are in proper relation to each other, and we observe the laws of Nature, the arteries and veins will be unimpeded and the blood circulate freely.

Pure blood is the best germicide known. Germs and their ill effects will disappear from the presence of pure blood.

The dry, hot-air treatments that I give, in connection with Osteopathy, restores the circulation to its normal condition, and improves and stimulates the blood. I have had marked success in its use with people in Paducah you all know well, and to whom I can refer you if you wish evidence of the fact.

The treatment is successful in all cases of stomach and liver disorders, malaria conditions, rheumatism, nervousness and chronic headaches. Dr. G. B. Fridge, 519 Broadway, Phone 1417.

People and Pleasant Events

Pleasant Occasion.

There was a pleasant reunion at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Poyner, on North Fourteenth street, last evening. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Treadway, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Treadway, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Poyner and Mr. W. E. Lowery. An elaborate dinner was served and a most enjoyable evening spent.

Mr. and Mrs. Porter are moving to Priest City Idaho, where Mr. Porter holds a responsible position with the Ayer-Lord Tie company, and the occasion was in farewell honor of them. Mrs. Poyner, the hostess, is sister to some of the party and aunt to the others.

The Charity Club.

The Charity club will meet on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. George C. Wallace on North Ninth street. A full attendance of the club is urgently desired.

Invitations to Davis-Bringham Wed- ding.

The invitations to the marriage of Miss Martha Stewart Davis and Mr. Edward Huling Bringham are issued today. The wedding will be solemnized on the evening of January 29, at 9 o'clock, at the Broadway Methodist, The Rev. Warner Thomas Bolling, D. D., will be the officiating clergyman.

The engagement of Miss Davis and Mr. Bringham was announced January 1. They are widely popular and the wedding will be the social event of the winter.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club met this morning at the Carnegie library. It was a very delightful morning in Seville, Spain. Mrs. Alonzo R. Meyers personally conducted the club "Here and There in Seville," touching at the most notable points as: The Cathedral, Alcazar, Library, Casa-de-Pilatos, "Seville in Song," Mozart's "Don Juan," Rossini's "Barber of Seville," Bizet's "Carmen," was interestingly featured by Mrs. John G. Miller.

Cotillon Club.

The Cotillon club will give a dance on January 23, at the Palmer house. It will be an especial german, outside the regular schedule of six arranged for the year.

Mrs. Sarahine Snowden and son Fred Iverlet left this morning for Waverly, Tenn., to attend the bedside of Mrs. Snowden's brother, Mr. Fred Lelaure, who is very ill.

Ex-Chief of Police A. B. Hopper, of Princeton, is visiting his niece, Mrs. Milliken, of 914 South Eleventh street.

Mr. Pat Halloran, of Cedar Bluff, returned home this morning after a business trip to this city.

Dispatchers J. H. Alvey and A. J. Jorgenson, of Fulton, are in the city today.

Mr. E. A. Hill, general manager of the Southwestern Sales company, is in the city meeting with local stockholders in the corporation.

Mr. H. J. Boldry, of Woodville, returned home today. He was operated on at Riverside hospital.

The infant son of Mr. Jack Houser, of the south side, is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

Dr. O. A. Eddleman, of Sharpe, Marshall county, was in Paducah today on business.

Mr. Herbert Martin is recovering after an attack of the grip.

You Are Out of Place.

If you are a clerk and hate the yardstick.

If you do not love your work and are not enthusiastic in it.

If you do not long to get to it in the morning and hate to have the time come to leave it.

If you do not see something more in it than making a living—if you do not see the making of a life.

If you are not growing broader, deeper.

If you are being dwarfed in any part of your nature.

If your faculties are being stunted, your ideal dulled.

If it strangles your ambition.

If you work mechanically and with out heart.

—Success.

Dick I know a girl who accepts rings from men she doesn't know. Clara—I don't believe it. How could she? Dick—Why, she has to, you know; she's a telephone girl.—Trib.

Some valuable farthings were sold at Sotheby's auction rooms, London, recently. A Charles II. powder farthing sold for $5 and an Oliver Cromwell farthing in copper for $15.

Contract to Paint Jail.

A. G. Coleman, at a bid of $63, was awarded the contract for painting the interior of the county jail this morning. He signed up all necessary papers. His bid was the best considering all, although bids ran from $40 to $175. The committee opened bids yesterday but did not award the contract until this morning.

In Police Court.

Trespassers will receive no mercy in police court from Judge D. A. Cross. This morning he showed how he "felt about it," and gave five white men 20 days each in the county jail for sleeping in, an Illinois Central box car. They are Kenneth Kirkpatrick, Will Church, Walter Heller, Jake Emery and Dave Crane.

Jonas Smith and his brother Harry Smith, colored, were presented and continued in a charge of maliciously cutting Allan Jackson Saturday night. They quarreled over a woman and a crap game. With the exception of Allan Jackson, who is not able to come to court, Harry Smith, Jonas Smith, Louis Smithers, Jim Caldwell, colored, were fined $20 and costs each for "shootin' craps."

Other cases: William Rossbreach of ordinance, continued; Beatrice Hartshorn, colored, house breaking, continued; Asbury Bradford, disorderly conduct, left open; Charles Grosshart, breach of the peace, continued.

Circuit Court.

Francis J. Heney—Fighting Man.

Henry Hock Needham contributes to the January issue of "Success Magazine" a forceful and illuminating account of the achievements of Francis J. Heney, the man who unearthed the gigantic land frauds in the West.

His "rolling stone" days, he says, came home to him, rather than to torment him. His remarkably varied life was a decided help in the wide range of cases in which his counsel was sought. Remember: he had been a teacher, prospector, miner, ranchman, and manager of an Indian trader's store—in all of which capacities he had served acceptably. Can any one imagine a better school to produce a stunt—a master of human nature? Heney is acknowledged to be a veritable wizard with a jury.

He rapidly forged to the front of his profession in the territory. During the second Cleveland administration he ably filled the position of Attorney-General of Arizona. Indeed, he was called on to bring suits against personal friends, to recover public money which had been illegally taken. This he did without fear or favor, but the experience disgusted him with territorial politics. Had Arizona been admitted to the Union when Utah was made a State, Heney would undoubtedly have been elected to the United States Senate. Because of President Cleveland's uncompromising opposition, statehood looked to be far away. The repeal of the Sherman Act was a heavy blow to silver mining. This was before the discovery of gold and prior to the present extensive development of the copper deposits. The cattle industry was also in a bad way. Heney thought it wise to shake the alkali dust of the territory from his feet. It was the only way he could get out of politics. Therefore, at thirty-five, he left Arizona for good; and he left behind him a law practice of $20,000 a year. He sold all his books on criminal law, and until he was called into the Oregon land fraud cases, he devoted himself entirely to civil practice.

Restored to vigorous health, he returned to San Francisco, where he has since lived. During the first year he did not pay his expenses, but since that time his practice has grown very large and extremely lucrative. His earnings as a lawyer rank with those of the leaders of the bar on the Pacific Coast.

CONTAGION FLAGS BEING DESTROYED

City Health Officer Dr. W. T. Graves Asks Aid

Board of Health Will Seek Legislation Making Head of House Responsible.

HEAVY PENALTY ATTACHED.

Reinforcement of the ordinance providing for the placing of warning flags on houses in which there is a contagious disease, is being agitated again by the board of health and a committee on legislation, composed of Dr. H. P. Sights and Messrs. James P. Sleeth and C. F. Yates, appointed by President Brothers, will urge the general council to pass an ordinance, placing the responsibility for the flag on the owner or occupant of the premises and fixing a penalty for its destruction.

Dr. W. T. Graves reported last night that the flags are torn down as fast as he can put them up, and an hour after he has tacked the flag on a house, people are going in and out and school children exposing themselves to the disease with impunity. His questions concerning the responsibility for the act are met with indifference. There is a severe penalty for destroying contagion flags and if the health officer discovers the responsible persons, he will prosecute them. In the meantime the board is desirous of fixing the responsibility on some one, who may be compelled to see after keeping the flag up until quarantine is officially removed.

Paducah .....	26.8	0.3	fall

The river fell only 0.3 during the last 24 hours, and, with the present indications for rain, or snow, a continued fall is not looked for. The gauge today registered 36.8.

Business on the wharf was active this morning the Dick Fowler for Cairo, the Joe Fowler from Evansville, and the Wheeler from Chattanooga handling big cargoes.

There were more people on the river front this morning than there have been in many days, all attracted by the arrival of Prof. Charles Oldrieve, the man walking on the water, from Pittsburg to New Orleans, on a wager. The old time river men were as much interested as anyone, probably more, as they wanted to see what manner of craft he was traveling in. The shoes he uses are little skiffs virtually. They are made of cedar, and are four feet long, hollowed out like a canoe, and come up to the occupants' knees. The propelling movement is a skidding motion and, with the current of the river to assist, good time is made.

The Dick Fowler left for Cairo at 8 o'clock this morning with a good freight and passenger trip.

The Joe Fowler from Evansville has a good trip today.

The Wheeler, from Chattanooga, had a big trip today for Paducah, Brookport and Joppa. After discharging her load for Paducah she left for the down river points and will return for up the river tonight. Most of her cargo was lumber and ties.

The Memphis arrived today from Waterloo, and will return tomorrow at 6 p. m.

The Georgia Lee left Memphis today for Cincinnati, and is due here Thursday.

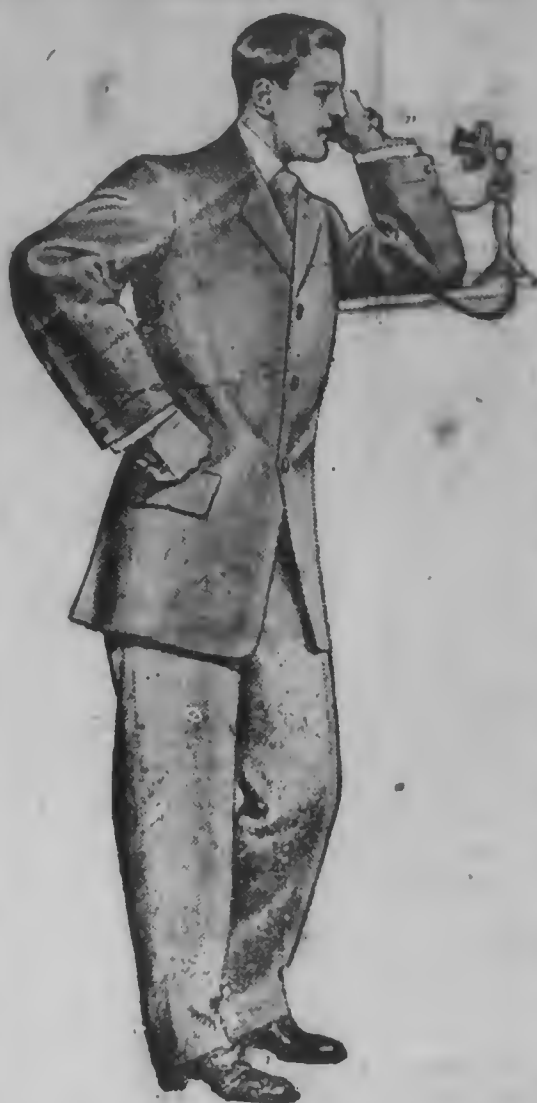

The Peters Lee, from Cincinnati, for Memphis, is due Saturday.

The Buttort is due in tonight from Clarksville and will leave tomorrow for the Nashville end of her trip.

The towboat Hook left today for Florence, Ala., for a tow.

While discussing the relative value of the different industries to Paducah this morning, a river authority said, "But few people appreciate what the rivers mean to Paducah. Just as an illustration of what one boat and one firm does for Paducah each year we take the record of the Ayer and Lord T. Co. company last year. The little steamer, Jolly, towed

RICH STEEL MAN IS DIVORCED

W. H. Donner, One of the Pittsburg Millionaires, Loses Wife.

Cleveland, Jan. 15.—W. H. Donner was the chief actor in a divorce drama in this city last week. He is one of Carnegie's Pittsburg steel millionaires. The suit cost him $200,000, as this is the amount he settled on his wife.

Mrs. Donner came to Cleveland last summer and took up her residence in an apartment house. Soon thereafter she began action for absolute divorce on the ground of "gross neglect of duty."

The cause of the estrangement, as related by Mrs. Donner, was the bringing into the house of a governess for her three children.

"She governed not only the children," said Mrs. Donner, "but too house, I found that I was not wanted at home."

The children are with the father.

Counting of Ballots Is Proceeding With Army of High Priced Clerks

New York, Jan. 15.—For the first time since the elections in the Mutual and New York Life insurance companies, Dec. 18, some votes were actually canvassed today. Five election inspectors in the Mutual Life, who are getting $35 a day each of the policyholders' money, accomplished the wonderful feat, with the assistance of ninety-five young women clerks, also paid by policy holders.

In all 100 ballots were canvassed. They worked from 10 o'clock to 12:30. There remains to be canvassed in the Mutual Life only 349,900 ballots. At the rate of progress made today it was calculated that it would take the inspectors only six years, one month and nine days to complete the canvass providing no complications arise. Meantime, of course, each inspector will get his $35 a day fee.

It is hoped to expedite the work later by working three groups of canvassers at the same time. In this way, it is expected that 2,100 votes will be canvassed a day. At this rate it will take about six and a half months to complete the count, which will delay the official result of the election until next July.

ASS'T. CHIEF

CAPT. JAKE ELLIOTT, OF COMPANY NO. 4, REWARDED.

All Vagrants Ordered From City By the Police and Fire Commissioners.

The board of fire and police commissioners last night in regular session created the honorary office of "assistant fire chief" and named Capt. Jake Elliott, of company No. 4, for the place. The office pays nothing in addition to Captain Elliott's salary, being created merely to have a head of the fire department in event of an accident or illness incapacitating Fire Chief Wood.

Chief of Police James Collins was instructed to have all peddlers without a license arrested.

Chief Collins was further instructed to drive all vagrants from the city.

Fire Chief James Wood was instructed to continue the present method of working firemen. They get one day off every eleven days. There are now two extra men, but on advice the rules were drafted, which will make five men off at a time.

CHAPTER XXI.

TWO days were spent by the travelers at the seigneurie of Ste. Marie, and they would very willingly have spent longer, for the quarters were comfortable and the welcome warm, but already the reds of autumn were turning to brown, and they knew how suddenly the ice and snow came in those northern lands and how impossible it would be to push their journey if winter were once fairly upon them. The old nobleman had sent his scouts by land and by water, but there were no signs of the Iroquois upon the eastern bank, so that it was clear that Du Lhut had been mistaken. Over on the other side, however, the gray plumes of smoke still streamed up above the trees as a sign that their enemies were not very far off.

The refugees were rested now and refreshed and of one mind about pushing on.

"I am not frightened, Amory, and I am quite rested now," said Adele. "We shall be so much more happy when we are in the English provinces, for even now how do we know that that dreadful friar may not come with orders to drag us back to Quebec and Paris?"

It was indeed very possible that the vindictive Frenchman, when satisfied that they had not ascended to Montreal or remained at Three Rivers, might seek them on the banks of the Richelieu. The seigneur was friendly, but the seigneur could not disobey the governor's order. A great band stretching all the way from Versailles seemed to hang over them, even here in the heart of the virgin forest, ready to snatch them up and carry them back into degradation.

But the seigneur and his son, who knew nothing of their pressing reasons for haste, were strenuous in urging Du Lhut the other way, and in this they were supported by the silent Du Lhut.

"You have seen my little place," said the old nobleman, with a wave of his bearded, rug-covered hand. "It is not what I should wish it, but, such as it is, it is most heartily yours for the winter if you and your comrades would honor me by remaining. As to Madame, I doubt not that my own dame and she will find plenty to amuse and occupy them, which reminds me, Du Lhut, that you have not yet been presented. Theoretically, go to your mistress and inform her that I request her to be so good as to come to us in the hall of the dais."

De Cathnat was too seasoned to be easily startled, but he was somewhat taken aback when the lady, to whom the old nobleman always referred in terms of exaggerated respect, proved to be no like a full-blooded Indian squaw as the hall of the dais was to a French barn.

"Allow me to present you, M. de Cathnat," said the Seigneur de Ste.

"Allow me to present you, M. de Cathnat."

Marie solemnly. "To my wife, Omega de la Nonne de Ste. Marie, chate-laine by right of marriage to this seigneurie, while retaining in her own right the hereditary chieftainship on the distant side of the nation of the Onondagas. My angel, I have been endeavoring to persuade our friends to remain with us at Ste. Marie."

"At least leave your little ally at Ste. Marie," said the dusky princess, speaking in excellent French and clapping with her ruddy fingers the ivory hand of Adele. "We will hold her safe for you until the ice softens and the leaves and the partridge berries come once more. I know my people, townsfolk, and I tell you that the woods are full of murder."

De Cathnat was more moved by the impressive manner of his hostess than by any of the other warnings which he had received. Surely she, if any one, must be able to read the signs of the future.

"I know not what to do," he cried in despair. "I must go on, and yet how can I expose her to these perils? I would rather stay the winter, but you must take my word for it, sir, that it is not possible."

"Du Lhut, you know how things should be ordered," said the seigneur. "What should you advise my friend to do, since he is so set upon getting to the English provinces before the winter comes?"

"There is but one way," said Du Lhut, "though even in it there is danger. The woods are safer than the river, for the reefs are full of hidden canoes. Five leagues from here is the blockhouse of Polton, and fifteen miles beyond that of Avergne. We will go tomorrow to Polton through the woods and see if all be safe. I will go with you, and I give you my word that if the Iroquois are there Greyson du Lhut will know it. The lady we shall leave here, and if we find that all is safe we shall come back for her. Then in the same fashion we shall advance to Avergne, and there you must wait until you hear where their war parties are. It is my mind that it will not be very long before we know."

And so it was at last agreed, and Adele was consigned to the care of the lady of Ste. Marie, while De Cathnat swore that without a pause he would return from Polton to fetch her. The old nobleman and his son would follow, but they had their own charge to watch and the lives of many in their keeping; while a small party was safer in the woods.

From La Noue to Polton was but twelve miles down the river, but by the woodland route the distance was more than doubled. The four men walked in single file, Du Lhut leading. De Cathnat walked behind, then Ephraim Savage, and then Amos, all with their weapons ready and with every sense upon the alert. By midday they were more than halfway and halted in a thicket for a scanty meal of bread and cheese. For an hour more they picked their way through the woods, following in the steps of the old French pioneer.

Suddenly Du Lhut dropped upon his knees and stooped his ear to the ground. He rose, shook his head and walked on with a grave face.

"Did you hear something?" whispered Amos.

Du Lhut put his finger to his lips and then in an instant was down upon his face with his ear fixed to the ground. He sprang up with the look of a man who has heard what he expected to hear.

"Walk on," said he quietly, "and be brave exactly as you have done all day."

"What is it, then?"

"Indians."

"In front of us?"

"No; behind us. They are following us—two, I think. Do not look round. Walk on as before. They are Iroquois."

"And pursuing us?"

"No; we are pursuing them."

"How far off are they?"

"About 200 paces, I think."

"They cannot see us then?"

"I think not, but I cannot be sure. They are following our trail, I think."

"What shall we do then?"

"Let us make a circle and get behind them."

Turning sharp to the left, he led them in a long curve through the woods, hurrying swiftly and yet silently under the darkest shadow of the trees. They turned again and presently halted.

"This is our own track," said he.

"Aye, and two redskins have passed over it," cried Amos, bending down and pointing to marks which were conspicuously visible to Ephraim Savage and De Cathnat.

"A full grown warrior and a lad on his first warpath," said Du Lhut. "They are moving fast, you see, for you can hardly see the heel marks of their moccasins. They walked one behind the other. Now let us follow them as they followed us and see if we have better luck."

BOSTON YIELDS TO BLUE LAWS.

"Unnecessary" Business Suspended and Hub Nuts Quiet Sunday.

Boston, Jan. 15.—This was the quietest Sunday Boston has had since the enforcement of the blue laws here. Only one violation was observed in the city proper, a barber shop keeping open for business contrary to the statute. Work on the subway and along the water front went on as usual without interference. The judges having decided that this is "necessary." In the railroad stations personal baggage was handled without objection by the transfer companies, but theatrical baggage and the trunks of commercial travelers were not touched. Caterers did not attempt to deliver ice cream and other of their products, and the rain of last night made sidewalk cleaning unnecessary.

You are not short of money when you have plenty of long green.

THE REASON WHY

only the purest, freshest drugs enter our prescriptions is, that with our large and growing business, we are able to turn over our stock of medicines, chemicals and pharmaceutical preparations a dozen times a year, where a smaller druggist can move his supplies only once or twice. In this way our prescriptions are fresh, potent and of dependable quality and are sure to act as your physician expects. Extreme care is given each prescription by competent registered clerks, and our careful checking system insures against mistakes.

ABATTOIRS MUST MOVE OUT OF CITY

Board of Health Finds Ordinance Covering Case

Permits Must Be Secured and Requirements of Law Lived Up to By Owners.

WILL GO BEFORE COUNCIL

The threatened struggle between the owners of slaughter houses operated within the city limits and the board of health has taken a new turn, and instead of beginning by declaring a slaughter house a nuisance the board of health will ask the general council not to grant any permits for the operation of slaughter houses inside the city.

When the board undertook a few months ago to drive out the slaughter houses, the owners declared they would not go unless the board went into court and had their establishments declared a nuisance.

Since then the members of the board have come to the conclusion that a slaughter house is a nuisance and they have begun to pass an ordinance covering the case. This ordinance requires owners of slaughter houses to secure permits from the general council to operate inside the city; requires the slaughter houses to have solid brick floors flush upon the ground; to provide means of running the blood and offal into a tub which must be carried away every day, and other accessories for the sake of cleanliness.

It is believed that few, if any, of the slaughter house owners have permits, and comply with the law, and the general council will be requested not to issue any more permits. Mr. James P. Steinhilber is instructed to go before the council with the request.

FEAR ENGLISH CHANNEL BORE.

Committee Decides Tunnel Would Weaken England's Security.

London, Jan. 15.—The extensive project for tunnelling the English channel, which is now awaiting parliamentary approval, would appear to have received a serious setback by the announcement that the Imperial defense committee has decided the construction of such a tunnel to be prejudicial to the national security. Inquiries made at the headquarters of the committee, however, failed to secure confirmation of this announcement, and it was pointed out that the committee had not held a meeting recently. Nevertheless, there is a strong drift of sentiment among the most eminent British military and naval experts, headed by Field Marshal Lord Wolseley, which condemns this project as opening the possibility of continental invasion.

On the other hand, the Rothschilds and the great railroads of England and France are prepared to make enormous investments of capital for the carrying out of this project. This makes trouble between strategists and capitalists, and the indications are that the former will exercise sufficient public apprehension to embarrass parliamentary approval of the scheme.

SHAKE THIS WELL IN A BOTTLE

A Splendid Prescription to be Mixed at Home

How Anyone Can Find Out If Kidneys Are Affected And What to Do to Get Well Again.

EVERY SUFFERER SHOULD TRY

A well-known authority states that there are more cases of kidney trouble here now than ever before, while recent reports show that more people succumb each year to some form of kidney disease than any other cause.

When there is sickness, examine the urine. Rheumatism is only a symptom of kidney trouble. It is nothing more or less than excessive uric acid in the blood, which the sluggish, inactive kidneys have failed to sift out, leaving it to decompose and settle about the joints and muscles, causing intense suffering; frequently resulting in deformity, often reaching the heart when death ensues.

Pains across the back, frequent, painful and suppressed urination and other symptoms of weak bladder are not the only signs of kidney trouble; many cases of stomach disease, headache, pain in the heart, inactive liver, etc. are but symptoms; the cause of which can be traced to feeble, clogged kidneys.

The physicians for the insurance company always carefully examine and report on the condition of the urine. It is a certain sign of sickness or health of the human body.

A test of the urine should be made of every man and woman at least once a year. A simple test is to void a small quantity of urine in a bottle or glass and let it stand overnight; next morning, if there is a reddish brick-dust sediment, or white, fleecy substance present, either consult some reputable physician or take a good vegetable treatment. The following prescription is recommended highly in these cases, and if desirable the sufferer can mix it at home. Any good prescription pharmacy has the ingredients, which are harmless and inexpensive: Compound Kargon, one ounce; Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. Shake well and use in teaspoonful doses after each meal and at bedtime. Where any of the symptoms enumerated above are present, good results are sure to follow immediately the use of this simple prescription.

STEAM TORPEDO

Will Reach High Degree of Speed in Water.

New York, Jan. 15.—By devising a torpedo propelled by steam generated in the burning of high explosives carried within it in concentrated form, Hiram Maxim has concluded experiments from which he asserts that the range of naval torpedoes will be doubled and naval warfare revolutionized. To meet the demand that torpedoes must have effective range equal to the gunfire to which the attacking torpedo boat would be subjected, Mr. Maxim burns motorite, a new explosive, to generate steam at a high pressure, and by this means the regulation naval torpedo is made much more efficient than when driven by compressed air, the motive power now generally used.

SEEKING LEADER OF THE MINORITY

House Insurgents Turn From Clark to Others

Charge Preferred Against Minister Pierce to Norway By Professor Elliott.

ATTORNEY AND A DELEGATE

Washington, Jan. 15.—Champ Clark, of Missouri, having declined to become a candidate for the minority leadership of the house against Representative Williams, the insurgents today turned their attention to Representative Burleson, of Texas, who promptly declined to allow the use of his name.

Charges Against Pierce.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Charges against Herbert H. D. Pierce, minister to Norway, who was formerly third assistant secretary of state, were made before the house committee on ways and means today by Prof. H. W. Elliott, of Cleveland, O. In connection with a hearing on a resolution for the further protection of fur seals on the high seas, Prof. Elliott stated that while Mr. Pierce was representing the United States government before The Hague tribunal in the settlement of the dispute growing out of the seizure of the sealing vessel, J. Hamilton Lewis, by the Russian government on the charge of piracy, he also represented the owners of the vessel. The chief purpose of Prof. Elliott in appearing before the committee, he explained, was to have the United States annul the lease of the sealing privileges on the Pribilof Islands, which it has granted to the North American Commercial company. He stated to the committee that the officers of the company perjured themselves when they obtained the lease.

SUPPORT TAFT.

Election of Curtis Settles Kansas Politics.

Washington, Jan. 15.—When Mr. Curtis, of Kansas, comes to the United States senate that state will have two men in the upper branch of congress who favor the nomination of Secretary of War William H. Taft for president in 1908. This is the feature of greatest interest to Washington in connection with the outcome of the latest senatorial fight. There was a bitter fight between Long and Curtis at the time the former was elected to the senate, and they have been bitter personal enemies. It is believed, however, now that both have achieved the highest honors within the gift of their state that they will pull together in the future, and it is believed further that their united efforts will be sure to send a Taft delegation to the next Republican national convention.

COUNCIL DEADLOCK

old members and naturally entitled to consideration.

"Yesterday there were indications that a Democratic alderman would break the deadlock, but again Mayor Yelzer saved the day and held them in check. He is responsible for this deadlock. He has interfered in the board of aldermen and on his head must rest the consequences. He remained with us last night until 10 o'clock, and after giving some instructions to the Democratic aldermen, left. They remained quiet until he came back this morning.

"You may say that we will fight it out now. It is a matter of principle with us."

Mayor Up Against It.

As a matter of fact, it does look as though Mayor Yelzer, with all his political acumen and talent for organization, is up against a bad situation now and he is having trouble holding his forces in line.

The Republicans are in the position of the holdovers entitled to recognition. Of course, it is politics on both sides, but the Democrats have the most to lose. They are in control of the joint council and the administration. Whatever happens to the city government this year will be laid at the door of the administration. The Republican members pledge themselves to sustain every measure they deem beneficial to the city of Paducah, regardless of its political effect, but they do not deem acquiescence in the domination of the executive over the legislative department necessarily beneficial to the city. The organization of the board is nothing and can be nothing but a matter of politics, but one side is as much to blame as the other for not giving in, and the Democrats have most to lose.

For instance, next week is the semi-monthly pay time of the police, and firemen, the first pay day of the new members of the force. The treasurer may not leave their checks until the payroll has been passed by the general council. The general council can do nothing until the board of aldermen acts. The police and firemen are part of the executive department, virtually the appointees and political followers of the mayor. So, as the aldermen see it, he is preventing his own police and firemen drawing their salaries. The Republican members would like to see the policemen and firemen paid, but they say they can hardly be expected to have more consideration for the mayor's appointees than the mayor has.

February 1, a lot of tradespeople and workmen will present claims, and they can not be paid until the claims are allowed by the general council. So more trouble is brewing. In the matter of salaries mandamus proceedings against the treasurer may secure the money, but litigation every pay day will be a slow method of getting their pay, when the mayor can secure it for them by leaving the aldermen alone.

Then, all licenses must be paid during January. The saloon license may not be granted until the general council passes on them. Unless the board of aldermen organizes and passes the saloon license before February 1, it is probable that Paducah will go dry.

A higher tax rate is being advocated by the majority, but unless the apportionment and tax rate ordinances are passed this month the old rate will obtain during the year.

Altogether, it is an interesting situation that Paducah faces and the administration finds itself in a cleft stick of its own devising. Backing out seems the only means of exit.

There was much fun at the meeting last night. Everybody refused water, so Chief Collins went out and got a pitcher of red lemonade. The Republican members, evidently fearing it was doped, refused it when it was passed to them first but the Democrats showed their confidence in their chief by indulging in his circus liquor. Toward midnight everybody got sleepy and there was little voting, while everybody lost count of the ballots. The Democrats imitated the tactics of the Republicans at the preceding election and took turns at being candidate, safe in the assurance of the monotonous result, four to four.

Light Makes Noise.

A continual noise resembling the fast beats of horses' hoofs kept residents in the vicinity of Fourth and Adams streets awake two nights before the cause of the trouble was learned. The street light was defective, a small hole having been broken in the bottom of the globe. This admitted air. The contact was rendered imperfect, and the noise could be heard for a square.

Removal Sale of A. Pollock's Jewelry Store

About February 15th we will take possession of our new store room--now occupied by the Great Pacific Tea and Coffee Co., 333 Broadway. In the meantime we have made startling reductions on our entire line of Watches, Diamonds and Jewelry. This for two reasons: First, we wish to move as little as possible of the present and, when we get into our new location, we mean to have a clean, new stock. If you need anything in our line give us a call, for we have made a cut of 50 per cent in many instances.
